

EMOTIONS SAND ART

What You Need:

- 5 Sand In Red, Purple, Green, Yellow, and Blue Colors
- Plastic Sand Bottle with Cork Closure
- Tiny Plastic Funnel
- White Card Stock Paper (for tags)
- Bakers Twine or Ribbon (to hang tags)
- Scissors
- Mood / Character Signs, printed and adhered to glass bottles
- Sticky paper (to print onto)
- Hole Punch for tag

Directions:

1. For this project, you will need colored sand and any size/shape vessel you want to put the sand into (make sure to get an object that can be closed).
2. Put each color of sand into their own jar, something is easy to pour.
3. Have kids write out their emotions onto one of the small cards and then let them create a sand art of their own based off of their current mood. Could be one color or all the colors!
4. They will put the small funnel into their vessel and slowly pour the sand into their cup. You can angle the funnel in many ways to create a unique look inside the bottle. Once they have filled up their container they can take their tag, punch a hole into it, string it and then hang it around their finished piece of sand art.
